TALK CINEMA RETURNS MAR. 10

PURCHASE — Harlan Jacobson's Talk Cinema – a series featuring sneak previews of notable independent and foreign films – returns at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Mar. 10, to The Performing Arts Center, Purchase College. Tickets to the screenings, followed by audience discussions (often with the artists involved), are $22.50.

Jacobson, former film critic for Variety and editor at Film Comment, says he prefers that filmgoers not be told the names of the film they will see – or the guest speakers – until the day of the screening. “We think that’s part of the fun – seeing a film the way the critics do, festival style, without preconceived notions,” he says.

Jacobson scours film festivals at Cannes, Sundance, Tribeca and other places to find the best of new cinema. In recent years, audiences of Jacobson’s

Talk Cinema series have previewed such wide-ranging films as Borat!, Sideways, Brokeback Mountain, Last Chance Harvey, Bend It Like Beckham, My Big Fat Greek Wedding, Super Size Me and Antwone Fisher. Filmmakers who have appeared include Richard Eyre (Iris), Stanley Tucci (Joe Gould's Secret), John Turturro (Illuminated), John Sayles (Sunshine State) and Paul Schrader (Auto Focus).

All screenings are held on Tuesdays at 7 p.m. Upcoming dates are Apr. 28 and May 12.

For more information, and to buy tickets, contact The Performing Arts Center ticket office (914-251-6200) or log onto The Center's website at <http://www.artscenter.org>.

The Center's 31st season is made possible, in part, by the Basic Program Support Grant of the Westchester Arts Council with funds from Westchester County Government.

Purchase College is located in Westchester County, minutes from the Connecticut border. The college, part of the State University of New York system, is a major institution of public higher education encompassing the liberal arts and sciences, professional training in the performing and visual arts, and continuing education. The college campus is home to The Performing Arts Center and The Neuberger Museum of Art, which strive to present models of excellence for both the college and its surrounding community.
