

2019-2020 SNEAK PEEK Order Form

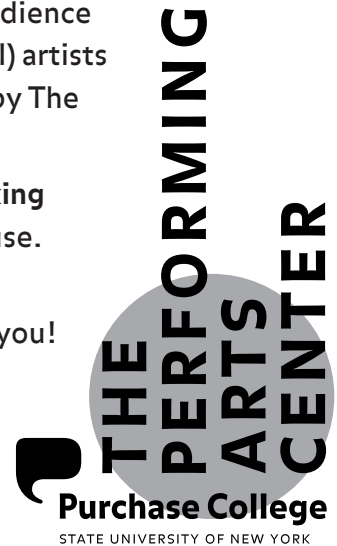

Because of your long-standing relationship with The PAC, we're giving you this sneak peek at our 2019-2020 season, and the chance to buy your tickets before they go on sale to the general public. I hope you'll be as excited as I am by what's to come! As you can see in the attached brochure, we'll be welcoming old friends and new to our stages. The season will also include more dance, more family events, more audience engagement. We'll be shining a spotlight on traditional (and not so traditional) artists from Mexico. You'll also be treated to four brand-new works commissioned by The PAC, two of which will have their world premieres on our stages.

I invite you to use this form to take advantage of the pre-sale; we'll begin taking ticket orders on May 29. Buy early to ensure you get the best seats in the house. Tickets will go on sale to the general public on June 19.

I look forward to sharing another season of world-class performing arts with you!

Seth Soloway
Director, The Performing Arts Center, Purchase College
